Time to Review the Family Violence Act

30 January 2007

Law Society President Neil Readett today supported the call in today's Mercury for a review of aspects of the Family Violence Act.

The Society is aware of a number of cases where problems with the Act have resulted in significant injustice to parties involved.

'The Law Society has always supported the principle behind the legislation but problems have emerged over the last year which need to be addressed urgently', Mr Readett said.

The Society is available to work with the Government to review and improve the Act to ensure that further injustices do not occur.
