Janet Margaret Scott

11 September 2007

A Hobart legal practitioner, Janet Margaret Scott had her name removed from the Roll of Legal Practitioners today by order of Justice Tennent in the Supreme Court of Tasmania.

The order was made on the application of the Law Society following the receipt of a number of complaints concerning the practitioner.

On receipt of the complaints, the Law Society applied to the Court for the appointment of a manager to Ms Scott's practice to protect client interests.

Following the investigation of the matters of complaints, the Society brought the application determined by Justice Tennent this morning.

Details of the complaints are contained in her Honour's judgment which is available from the Supreme Court or the Law Society website at: Scott Judgment
